Romans 14 addresses the delicate balance between Christian liberty and mutual love within the church. Paul speaks to believers who hold differing convictions about non-essential matters—specifically eating meat from idols. One group said we cannot eat meat from idols, it will make us unclean others said it is just meat the butcher sells it we can eat it. Paul emphasizes that these differences should not divide the body of Christ. Each believer is ultimately accountable to God, and thus, judging others in disputable matters is improper.

Christian Liberty and Personal Conviction. One side we are free in Christ we can do anything that is what Grace is about. The other side says no fundamentally we should be not of this world.

We have this nowadays Christians say things like it has to be the King James version, can't drink alcohol, women can't lead. The list goes on. This is neither right or beneficial nor wrong or harmful it is adiaphorous So let's see on Sunday how we can have a call to unity but still stay in unity.

A message from the COACH Coordinator

The Importance of Community

Community plays a significant role in supporting the vulnerable and fostering connections that lead to healing and growth. God created us for relationships, and in the context of community, we can uplift one another. There are verses in the Bible that affirm our shared journey and the strength we can find in coming together to support those who are struggling. By actively participating in our communities, we embody God's love and mercy in ways that reach far beyond our individual capabilities. It is together that we can make a profound difference in the lives of others, creating a safe haven for the vulnerable. Let's commit to being active parts of our communities, working hand in hand to ensure that no one is left alone or uncared for.

A big thank you to all who supported May Mission Month by donating to or purchasing from our Bring and Buy Table and by attending our Mission night dinner. We raised $955 which will be forwarded on to Baptist Mission Australia (BMA) to support Jean-Claude and Joyce Manirakiza (Malawi), Ryan and Suzie Smith (South Asia), Botta and Kirsten Long (Cambodia) and BMA projects. Heartfelt thanks from the Mission Team.

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
