Sunday, 28th June 2026

The 14th Dalai Lama has been attributed with the following quote: "Compassion and love are the source of all spiritual qualities: forgiveness, tolerance, all the virtues."

As we consider the call to unity as brought to us by Pastor Neil last week, let us consider the role of forgiveness in the development of the spiritual fruit of love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

May we continue to grow in the unity of knowing God's presence with us, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

A message from the COACH Coordinator

Responding with Compassion

Compassion is at the heart of our faith and is pivotal in responding to the vulnerable. The Bible reminds us that we are called to be empathetic, to feel the pain of others, and to respond actively in love. When we see someone struggling, it is our duty to take note of their situation and lend a helping hand. God's compassion flows through us as we practice kindness, making a tangible difference in the lives of those we encounter. As we embrace our role in displaying compassion, we are reminded that it is in our response to others that we also reflect the love of Christ. Let's strive to always respond with compassion, making sure that everyone feels seen, heard, and valued.
